Thursday, January 25, 2024 – 8 PM – LOU GRAMM: THE ORIGINAL VOICE OF FOREIGNER

Lou Gramm, the renowned rock vocalist from Rochester, New York, began his musical journey in his mid-teens, playing with local bands like St. James Infirmary and PHFFT. He later fronted the band Black Sheep, the first American band signed to Chrysalis label, but an icy accident during their tour led to their premature end. In 1976, fate intervened when Gramm met Mick Jones, and he became the lead vocalist for Foreigner, propelling them to become one of the most successful rock bands of the late 1970s and 1980s. Despite ongoing internal conflicts, Gramm released a successful solo album, "Ready or Not," and continued to collaborate with Foreigner intermittently, leaving a lasting legacy in the music industry chronicled in his autobiography, "Juke Box Hero: My Five Decades in Rock 'n' Roll," released in 2013.

Tuesday, February 27, 2024 – 7:30 PM – GEOFF TATE PLUS SPECIAL GUEST ADRIAN VANDENBERG

Geoff Tate, the Grammy-nominated artist and creative force behind progressive metal band Queensryche, boasts multi-platinum success with over 20 million albums sold worldwide. Celebrated for his remarkable vocals, Tate's influence extends to modern artists. Queensryche, led by Tate, is renowned for their socially conscious music blending intricate lyrics and high-energy melodies. Notably, their first three albums achieved gold status, including the acclaimed "Operation: Mindcrime" (1988), compared to iconic works like The Who's "Tommy" and Pink Floyd's "The Wall."

Tate's achievements span Grammy nominations, chart-topping hits like "Silent Lucidity," and performing the Grammy-nominated song at the Awards with an orchestra. His journey encompasses successful solo projects and the ambitious trilogy "The Key" (2015), "Resurrection" (2016), and "The New Reality" (2017). Geoff Tate and the current Operation: Mindcrime lineup celebrated "Operation: Mindcrime's" 30th Anniversary with an electrifying tour, highlighting their timeless music.

Adrian Vandenberg's prolific career, spanning iconic bands and solo projects, has shaped his musical journey. Vandenberg and Mascot Records are thrilled to announce the global release of their new studio album "SIN" on August 25. The album "SIN" captures the essence of Vandenberg's evolution, recorded in Holland and Los Angeles. The album's scorching single "House On Fire" showcases the fusion of foot-tapping groove and darker lyrical undertones.

The complete track listing includes a compelling array of songs, available in Green LP, CD, and Digital formats. Adrian Vandenberg and the band look forward to sharing their vibrant music with fans, creating a sonic journey that resonates with listeners worldwide. Vandenberg's "SIN" promises to be a vibrant and dynamic addition to their legendary discography.
